- f. Supporting Documentation in Order to Have Prima Facie Validity. In order to have prima facie validity, each claim of a type specified in Bankruptcy Rules 3001(c) and 3001(d) must include supporting documentation. If, however, such documentation is voluminous, such Proof of Claim may include a summary of such documentation or an explanation as to why such documentation is not available; provided that (i) the Proof of Claim contain current contact information for the creditor or its designated representative from whom the Debtors may request the full supporting documentation and (ii) such party must produce the supporting documentation to the Debtors' counsel upon request no later than 10 days from the date of such request.

9. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Order [Docket No. 96] shall govern and control with respect to any Master Proof of Claim that may be filed by the Prepetition Agent or the DIP

Agent (each as defined in the DIP Order), in their sole discretion, and this Bar Date Order shall not apply to (a) the DIP Secured Parties, or (b) the Prepetition Secured Parties with respect to the Prepetition Secured Obligations (as defined in the DIP Order) or any claims arising under the Prepetition Credit Documents (as defined in the DIP Order).

V. Identification of Known Creditors.

10. The Debtors shall mail notice of the applicable Bar Date only to their known creditors, and such mailing shall be made to the last known mailing address for each such creditor, as reflected in the Debtors' books and records at such time.

VI. Procedures for Providing Notice of the Bar Date.

A. Mailing of Bar Date Notices.

11. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(7), within three business days of the later of (a) the date the Debtors file their Schedules and (b) entry of the Bar Date Order, the Debtors shall cause a written notice of the Bar Date Package to be served via email or first-class mail, as applicable, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Bar Date Notice"), and a Proof of Claim Form (collectively, the "Bar Date Package") to be mailed via first-class mail to the following entities (or their respective counsel, if known):

- a. the U.S. Trustee;
- b. the entities listed as holding the 30 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis);
- c. Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, as counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Term Loan Lenders and the DIP Term Loan Lenders;
- d. WSFS;
- e. ArentFox Schiff LLP as counsel to WSFS;
- f. Greenberg Traurig, LLP, as counsel to the ABL Agent and the DIP ABL Agent;
- g. the agents under each of the Debtors' prepetition secured credit facilities;
- h. all creditors and other known holders of claims against the Debtors as of the date of entry of the Bar Date Order;

- i. all entities that have requested notice of the proceedings in these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the date of the entry of the Bar Date Order;
- j. all entities that have filed Proofs of Claim in these chapter 11 cases as of the date of the entry of the Bar Date Order;
- k. all known non-Debtor equity and interest holders of the Debtors as of the date of entry of the Bar Date Order;
- l. all entities who are party to executory contracts and unexpired leases with the Debtors;
- m. all entities who are party to active litigation with the Debtors;
- n. all current and former employees (to the extent that contact information for former employees is available in the Debtors' records);
- o. all other entities listed on the Debtors' creditor matrix;
- p. the Environmental Protection Agency;
- q. all other regulatory authorities that regulate the Debtors' business, including environmental and permitting authorities;
- r. the Offices of the Attorney General for each of the states in which the Debtors operate;
- s. the District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for the Southern District of Texas;
- t. all other taxing authorities for the jurisdictions in which the Debtors maintain or conduct business; and
- a. the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Texas.

Any creditor may choose to submit a Proof of Claim on a different form as long as it is substantially similar to Official Form 410.

B. Supplemental Mailings.

12. After the initial mailing of the Bar Date Packages, the Debtors may, in their discretion, make supplemental mailings of notices or packages, including in the event that: (a) notices are returned by the post office with forwarding addresses; (b) certain parties acting on behalf of parties in interest decline to pass along notices to these parties and instead return their names and addresses to the Debtors for direct mailing, and (c) additional potential claimants become known as the result of the Bar Date mailing process or the Schedules filing process. In this regard, the Debtors may make supplemental mailings of the Bar Date Package in these and similar circumstances at any time up to 10 days in advance of the applicable Bar Date, with any such mailings being deemed timely and such Bar Date being applicable to the recipient creditors. Additionally, if any new potential creditors are discovered before the Claims Bar Date, the Debtors shall mail a Bar Date Package to such parties, and the Debtors will work with such parties to make reasonable accommodations in the event a request is made for an extension of the Claims Bar Date.

13. To the extent that any notices are returned as “return to sender” without a forwarding address, the Debtors are not required to mail additional notices to such creditors.

C. Publication of Bar Date Notice.

14. The Debtors shall cause notice of the Claims Bar Date and the Governmental Bar Date to be given by publication to creditors to whom notice by mail is impracticable, including creditors who are unknown or not reasonably ascertainable by the Debtors and creditors whose identities are known but whose addresses are unknown by the Debtors. Specifically, the Debtors shall cause the Bar Date Notice to be published as soon as reasonably practicable after entry of the Bar Date Order, modified for publication in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the “Publication Notice”), on one occasion in the national edition of The New York Times and/or any other national or local publications that the Debtors deem appropriate and disclose in the Claims and Noticing Agent’s affidavits of service.

15. Notice of the Bar Dates as set forth in this Bar Date Order and in the manner set forth herein (including, but not limited to, the Bar Date Notice, the Publication Notice, and any supplemental notices that the Debtors may send from time to time) constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of each of the Bar Dates and satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Bankruptcy Local Rules.

VII. Consequences of Failure to File a Proof of Claim.

16. Any person or entity that is required, but fails, to file a Proof of Claim in accordance with the Bar Date Order on or before the applicable Bar Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such claim against the Debtors and their estates (or filing a Proof of Claim with respect thereto) and the Debtors and their property and estates shall be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness or liability with respect to or arising from such claim. Without limiting the foregoing sentence, any creditor asserting a claim entitled to priority pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code that fails to file a Proof of Claim in accordance with this Bar Date Order shall not be entitled to any priority treatment on account of such claim pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, regardless of whether such claim is identified on the Schedules as not contingent, not disputed, and liquidated. Such person or entity shall not be treated as a creditor with respect to such claim for any purpose in these chapter 11 cases.

17. Any such entity that is required, but fails, to file a Proof of Claim in accordance with the Bar Date Order on or before the applicable Bar Date shall be prohibited from voting to accept or reject any chapter 11 plan filed in these chapter 11 cases, participating in any distribution in these chapter 11 cases on account of such claim, or receiving further notices regarding such claim.

VIII. Miscellaneous.

18. Solely as an accommodation to the ACE Companies and the Chubb Companies (each as defined below), and solely in their capacities as insurers, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Bar Date Order, any provision of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, any order of this Court, any Proof of Claim Form or any Bar Date Notice, (a) ACE American Insurance Company, on its own behalf and on behalf of all of its U.S.-based affiliates and predecessors (collectively, the “ACE Companies”), may file a single consolidated

Proof of Claim based on the insurance policies issued by any of the ACE Companies to (or providing coverage to) the Debtors (or their predecessors) and any agreements related thereto (the “ACE Proof of Claim”) in the chapter 11 case of Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc. Case No. 25-90127 (the “Lead Case”), which shall be deemed filed by each of the ACE Companies not only in the Lead Case, but also in the chapter 11 case of each of the Debtors; (b) Federal Insurance Company, on its own behalf and on behalf of all of its U.S.-based affiliates and successors (collectively, the “Chubb Companies”), may file a single consolidated proof of claim based on the insurance policies issued by any of the Chubb Companies to (or providing coverage to) the Debtors (or their predecessors) and any agreements related thereto (the “Chubb Proof of Claim,” and collectively with the ACE Proof of Claim, the “Consolidated Claims”) in the Lead Case, which shall be deemed filed by each of the Chubb Companies not only in the Lead Case, but also in the chapter 11 case of each of the Debtors; and (c) as the documents supporting the Consolidated Claims are voluminous and contain confidential information, the documents supporting the Consolidated Claims will not need to be filed with the Consolidated Claims, and a summary of the documents supporting the Consolidated Claims will be filed with the Consolidated Claims instead provided that the Debtors reserve the right to request all documents supporting the Consolidated Claims subject to the appropriate protections for confidential information. The authorization granted hereby to allow the ACE Companies and the Chubb Companies to file the Consolidated Claims is for procedural purposes only, is intended to be for administrative convenience, and shall not be interpreted or construed to substantively affect any right, objection, claim, or defense of any party in interest to the Consolidated Claims including, (i) the amount, extent, validity, priority, perfection, or enforceability of any claim or security interest asserted by the Consolidated Claims and (ii) the right of the ACE Companies or the Chubb Companies to

(a) assert joint and several liability against some or all of the Debtors, (b) modify the Debtor(s) against which the Consolidated Claims are asserted, or (c) amend the amount or nature of the Consolidated Claims, and, in each case, the Debtors' rights to object thereto; provided, however, that the Consolidated Claims shall not be disallowed, reduced or expunged solely on the basis that the Consolidated Claims are filed (i) only in the Lead Case and only against Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc. (instead of in the bankruptcy cases of each or any of the other Debtors), and/or (ii) only by either ACE American Insurance Company or Federal Insurance Company (instead of by each of the ACE Companies and the Chubb Companies, respectively). For the avoidance of doubt, and without altering any of the foregoing, the authorization granted hereby is without prejudice to the right of any party to object to the Consolidated Claims on the basis of insufficient information or to seek to disallow and/or expunge the Consolidated Claims to the extent it is determined that all or any portion of the Consolidated Claims are not allowable against any individual Debtor.

19. Solely as an accommodation to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation ("PBGC"), each proof of claim or proofs of claim filed by PBGC on its own behalf or on behalf of the Pension Plan for Nylon Employees (the "Pension Plan") under the joint administration case number for these Chapter 11 cases (Case. No. 25-90127 (CML)) shall, at the time of its filing, be deemed to constitute the filing of such proof of claim or proofs of claim in all of the cases jointly administered under the Lead Case. Consequently, each claim that PBGC files under Case No. 25-90127 (CML) shall represent a separate claim asserted against each of the eleven Debtors. Further, any amendments that PBGC may make with respect to any timely filed proof of claim or proofs of claim that PBGC has filed on its own behalf or on behalf of the Pension Plan in the jointly administered Chapter 11 case, Case No. 25-90127 (CML), shall be deemed to constitute the filing of an amended proof of claim or proofs of claim in all of the cases jointly administered under the Lead Case. This accommodation is intended solely for administrative convenience and shall not affect the substantive rights of the Debtors, PBGC, or any other party in interest with respect to the number, allowance, amount, or priority of PBGC's claims or with respect to any objection, defense, offset, counterclaim, acceptance, or rejection related to PBGC's claims.

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended as or should be construed or deemed to be: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, priority, or validity of any claim against a Debtor entity under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion or a finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim or other priority claim; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver or impairment of the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease.

21. The Debtors and the Claims and Noticing Agent are authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Bar Date Order in accordance with the Motion.

22. The terms and conditions of this Bar Date Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon entry of the Bar Date Order.

23. All time periods set forth in this Bar Date Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

24. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Bankruptcy Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

25. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Bar Date Order.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §503(b)(9): A claim arising from the value of any goods received by the Debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement of the above case, in which the goods have been sold to the Debtor in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Attach documentation supporting such claim.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
